Dear WJHG (NBC-7):

Dear local television manager,

I am highly offended by the sexual content in the latest Hardees/Carl's Jr. television commercials known as "Patty Melt" and "Flat Buns." In my opinion, they violate local community standards.

Because you are licensed to "serve the public interest" in our community, I request that you refuse to air these ads. If you are already airing them, I ask you to stop.

As required by law, please place a copy of this email letter in your station's public file, to be readily available to FCC representatives, specifically during the license renewal period for your station.

Sincerely,

Kelley Horton

SEVERAL NEW T-V ADS FROM THE COMPANY THAT OWNS HARDEE'S FAST FOOD RESTAURANTS ARE CREATING A STIR.

A GROUP CALLED THE AMERICAN FAMILY FEDERATION HAS URGED IT'S FOLLOWERS TO E-MAIL T-V STATIONS IN THEIR AREA TO PROTEST THE AIRING OF THE COMMERCIALS.

THEY SAY THE ADS ARE OFFENSIVE.

WE WARN YOU, WE'RE ABOUT TO SHOW ONE OF THE ADS, SO IF YOU THINK YOU MIGHT FIND IT OFFENSIVE, TURN AWAY FROM YOUR SCREEN.

NATS UP/VO

THE ADS ARE FOR A NEW LINE OF SANDWICHES NAMED "FLAT BUNS".

AN ACTRESS PORTRAYS A TEACHER, WITH SEVERAL OF HER STUDENTS CHANGING THE WORDS TO A POPULAR RAP SONG TO PROFESS THEIR ENTHUSIASM FOR "FLAT BUNS".

THE REST OF THE COMMERCIAL PRETTY MUCH SPEAKS FOR ITSELF.

THOSE AGAINST THE FLAT BUNS BURGER COMMERCIAL SAY ADVERTISERS HAVE GONE TO FAR.

NATS UP

Dear WJHG (NBC-7):

Dear local television manager,

I am highly offended by the sexual content in the latest Hardees/Carl's Jr. television commercials known as "Patty Melt" and "Flat Buns." In my opinion, they violate local community standards.

Because you are licensed to "serve the public interest" in our community, I request that you refuse to air these ads. If you are already airing them, I ask you to stop.

As required by law, please place a copy of this email letter in your station's public file, to be readily available to FCC representatives, specifically during the license renewal period for your station.

Sincerely,

Regina Fidler
